Get Organized Month Supports Resolutions

CLEVELAND, Ohio (January 3, 2006) – The National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO) sponsors its second annual *Get Organized Month*SM in January 2006.

Get Organized Month is an annual event dedicated to raising awareness of the benefits of getting organized and of hiring a professional organizer. Cleveland-based organizer and NAPO Treasurer Valentina Sgro explains, “January is the perfect month for this event. Many people list getting organized as a top New Year’s resolution along with losing weight and exercising. In other words they want their lives to be as lean and fit as they want their bodies to be.”

Get Organized Month 2006 once again will involve the entire organizing industry. NAPO members and chapters will conduct local programs on organization, while NAPO associate members and industry partners will help raise awareness among their customers.

Professional organizers are available year-round to assist homes and businesses. Sgro says, “Last year NAPO professional organizers provided organizing services to more than 70,000 residential and commercial clients.” To help members of the public find a professional organizer, NAPO offers a free automated referral network searchable by ZIP code and organizing specialty. The service is available at www.napo.net, “Find and Organizer.”

NAPO, celebrating 20 years as The Organizing Authority®, is the premier national association dedicated to the field of organizing. With more than 3,400 members, NAPO’s purpose is to share information about this growing industry and to define quality standards for the organizing profession. For more information on NAPO, visit www.napo.net.

Sgro is the owner of SGRO Consulting, Solutions for Getting Really OrganizedSM. A certified Chronic Disorganization Specialist, a member of the Golden Circle of NAPO, and an award-winning author, she is serving in her third year on NAPO’s board of directors, currently as its treasurer. Sgro also is a past treasurer of the National Study Group on Chronic Disorganization (NSGCD). Sgro consults privately and offers engaging and compelling seminars and presentations to anyone interested in getting really organized. Sgro can be reached through the SGRO Consulting website at www.reallyorganized.com.
