Cleveland Organizer Nominated for Founders' Award

SHAKER HEIGHTS, Ohio (February 1, 2007) – A group of Ohio professional organizers has nominated Valentina Sgro for the prestigious NAPO Founders' Award. This award of the National Association of Professional Organizers is given in the spirit of the founders of NAPO to a member who has helped to move the organizing profession forward. It is the only NAPO award that requires three nominations and whose recipient is selected by the 4000-person membership.

In their nomination statement, Sgro's colleagues concluded, "For her devotion to the industry, her industry associates and, most of all, to her clients, we believe Val Sgro is much deserving of the Founders' Award."

"I'm truly honored to think that my peers would value my contributions so much as to expend the time and effort necessary to put together this nomination," said Sgro. Sgro is the owner of Cleveland-based SGRO Consulting, Solutions for Getting Really Organized,SM which is currently celebrating its tenth anniversary.

Six other NAPO members have also been nominated for this year's award. Balloting takes place throughout February. The recipient will be announced at the Awards Luncheon on April 28, 2007, during NAPO's 19th Annual Conference and Organizing Exposition in Minneapolis, MN.
