Cleveland Organizer Elected to Second Term as NAPO Treasurer

Boston, Massachusetts (March 24, 2006) – Cleveland-based professional organizer Valentina Sgro has been elected to a second term as treasurer of the National Association of Professional Organizers (NAPO). The official announcement and installation took place at NAPO's 18th Annual Conference and Organizing Exposition in Boston, Massachusetts, in front of a gathering of 900 professional organizers.

As NAPO's treasurer, Sgro oversees a $1.5 million budget. "I'm honored by the confidence that my colleagues have in me as a leader of our industry," said Sgro. "We're fortunate that our profession continues to grow, but we are faced with the challenge of increasing non-member revenues to help us carry out our strategic objectives."

NAPO, celebrating 21 years as The Organizing Authority®, is the premier national association dedicated to the field of organizing. With more than 3,600 members, NAPO seeks to share information about this growing industry and to define quality standards for the organizing profession. For more information on NAPO, visit www.napo.net.

Sgro is the owner of SGRO Consulting, Solutions for Getting Really OrganizedSM. A certified Chronic Disorganization Specialist, a member of the Golden Circle of NAPO, and an award-winning author, Sgro consults privately and offers engaging and compelling seminars and presentations to businesses interested in getting really organized. Sgro can be reached through the SGRO Consulting website at www.reallyorganized.com.
